

Key Thatch Palm

Thrinax morrisii

Family: Arecaceae

Native Range: Florida Keys to West Indies

Description: Slender palm to 12ft.

Flowering season: Spring to Summer; berries in Fall

Exposure: Full sun to partial shade

Moisture: Moist to Average Highly Salt Tolerant

USDA Hardiness Zone: 9-11

Excellent nectar source; berries for birds