

Longleaf Pine

Pinus palustris

Family: Pinaceae

Native Range: Once was widespread throughout Southeastern U.S. 97 million acres

Description: Evergreen tree to 60 ft

Exposure: Full sun to partial shade

Moisture: Average to dry (Drought Tolerant)

USDA Hardiness zone: 8-10

Great Canopy Tree for many Species of Birds and other Creatures