

Lyre-leaf Salvia

Salvia lyrata

Family: Lamiaceae

Native Range: Throughout the southeastern U.S.

Description: Perennial Wildflower, reseeds readily to 1ft.

Flowering season: Winter to spring

Exposure: Full sun to partial shade

Moisture: Moist to average
Not Salt Tolerant

USDA Hardiness Zone: 8-10

Attracts many butterflies, hummingbirds and pollinators

